Tear Resistant Banners Durability and Life:

The life of a banner really depends on how it is being used, stored, and taken care of. The more it is used, the less life it will have. Under normal use, a vinyl banner will last approximately 5 to 10 years. The wood fiber can serve you in 3-10 years or the basic 1-2 years. Naturally, if the banner is being used outdoors 24/7, due to the weather conditions and the sunlight, it will wear out much faster than if it is used indoors. Also, the way that it is stored will affect the life of the banner and straw it, but the maintenance really deteresses its lifespan. If you are planning to assist your banners outdoors, you are better off getting an extra durable 13-ounce vinyl, and were to hang it. You can consider ordering reinforced corners along with your banner if you are planning to order grommets to hang your banner, as the reinforced corners will ensure that your banner will not tear around the grommets. Finally, if you are looking for a banner for the latter use, we recommend that you roll it and keep it away from dust and extreme heat, as opposed to folding it. When the banner is rolled as opposed to folded, you are preventing the vinyl from cracking along the folds. Also, if you are storing your banner, you want to make sure that it isn't stress out too much, you can always get rid of the creases when hanging or taping the banner flat, and by applying light heat to the banner, but not too close to it. If you have any questions about how to take the best care of your banner and ensure a longer lifespan, don't hesitate to contact us. We will be happy to assist you!
