Vinyl Banners Durability and life
The life of a banner really depends on how it is being used, stored, and taken care of. The more it is used, the less it will last. Typically, a vinyl banner that is used daily will last between 1-4 years. The most they can serve you is 5-10 years or the least 1-2 years. Naturally, if the banner is being used outdoors 24/7, due to the weather conditions and the sunlight, it will wear out more quickly than if used sporadically, or if used indoors. It is not difficult to maintain a banner and store it, but maintenance really determines its lifespan. If you are planning to mount your banner outside, it is a good idea to add grommets to the corners and every 2-3 feet for wind slits. If your banner will be placed against a fence, or hung freely in the air, where the wind will blow against it. You can consider ordering reinforced corners along with your banner if you are planning to order grommets to hang your banner, as the reinforced corners will ensure extra support to the corners of your banner, and prevent ripping. When storing your banner for later use, be sure to completely dry it out, and then roll it up and store it in a cool, dry place, such as a folding it. When the banner is rolled as opposed to folded, you are preventing the banner from creasing. Though, if the banner is too large, and it is easier to fold over the rail, don't stress out too much, you can always get rid of the creases when hanging or laying the banner flat, and by applying light heat to the banner, but not too close to it. If you have any additional questions on how to take care of your banner and ensure a longer lifespan, don't hesitate to contact us. We will be happy to assist you!
Custom Vinyl Banners Finish Options
[1]
Before placing your order, it's a good idea to view and decide on the following detailed options.
Hems and Grommets.
HEMS
Hems on a custom vinyl banner refer to the finished edges of the banner that have been folded over and sewn to create a reinforced edge. This adds stability and strength to the banner and also prevents the edges from fraying. Hems are also used to create pole pockets and sleeve pockets. Double-fold hems are created by folding the edge of the banner over twice and sewing it in place to create a clean, finished edge. Pole pockets, on the other hand, are created by sewing a pocket along the edge of the banner that is used to insert a pole or other support structure.
Grommets
[3]
Grommets are small metal rings that are typically inserted into the corners or along the edges of a custom vinyl banner, which provide a secure way to hang the banner. Grommets are typically made of brass, aluminum, or other durable materials and are placed at regular intervals along the banner. They are typically used in conjunction with rope, cable ties, or bungee cords to secure the banner to a fence or other structure. Grommets are a common feature on banners that are reinforced with a metal ring, which allows for the banner to be hung up with a rope or cable tie and prevents the tearing of the material. Grommets are a common feature on banners that will be hung in high-traffic areas or exposed to harsh weather conditions, so they are durable and resistant to tearing.
POLE POCKETS

Pole pockets are a feature on custom vinyl banners that are designed to make it easy to hang the banner using a pole. They are essentially a folded-over and sewn edge of the banner, which creates a pocket where a pole can be inserted. This allows the banner to be hung from a pole or a rope, without the need for any other type of hardware. Pole pockets are typically placed on the top and bottom of a banner and can be created in different sizes to fit different diameter poles. Pole pockets are a convenient way to hang a banner, as it eliminates the need for additional hardware or rigging to display the banner.
WIND SLITS
[4]
Wind slits, also known as wind flaps, are small cuts or openings in a vinyl banner that are designed to reduce wind resistance and prevent the banner from tearing or getting damaged in windy conditions. When the wind blows against a banner, it can create a large amount of force on the banner, causing it to stretch, tear, or even break. Wind slits allow the wind to pass through the banner, rather than against it, which can help to reduce the amount of force and prevent any damage. They are usually placed at the corners or along the edges of a banner and are a common feature on banners that will be hung in high-wind areas or exposed to harsh weather conditions.
Affordable Vinyl banners
